In Memoriam

Mary Jean Demazure

For those who have been faithful, O Lord, life is not ended, but merely changed; and when this earthly aboded dissolves, an eternel dwelling place awaits them in heaven.

If a tiny baby could think, it would be afraid of birth. To leave the only world it has known would seem a kind of death. But immediately after birth the child would find itself in loving arms, showered with affection and cared for at every moment. Surely the baby would say, "I was foolish to doubt God's Plan for me. This is a beautiful life.

Michele Webster

Gary Vander Veer

For the Christian, passing through death is really a birth into a new and better world. Those who are left behind should not grieve as if there were no hope. Life is changed, not taken away. Our dear ones live on, in a world beautiful beyond anything we can imagine. There they await the day when they will welcome us with joy.

Letter from the Editors

To all members of the Holy Cross Community,

As Co-Editors of the 1998 Purple Patcher yearbook, we would like to extend our most sincere appreciation to all those who helped to make this book possible. We would like to thank Dr. Peter Simonds, Sandy Shook, Dan Smith of Jostens Publishing Company, Caren Corin of Davor Photography, and the entire yearbook staff. Our job could not have been completed without the help of these important individuals.

We would also like to offer our deepest symapathies on behalf of the Holy Cross Community, to the families and friends of Mary Jean Demazure, Gary Vander Veer and Michele Webster. The 1998 Purple Patcher is dedicated to their memory.

Finally, as Co-Editors we would like to extend our sincere hope that this book meets the expectations of the community. We did our best to include as many members of the community as possible in the attempt to capture many memories for all students, faculty, family and friends of the college. In years to come, we hope this book serves its purpose in keeping the College of the Holy Cross close in our hearts and minds.

It is with bittersweet feelings that we say goodbye to Holy Cross days and to the friends and faculty that were so much a part of our experience here. We would like to take this final opportunity to share our gratitude to the college, and to wish both congratulations and the best of luck to the class of 1998.

Sincerely,

Melissa A. McGunagle Megan F. O'Brien

Oh, Hear thy voices one in song
Holy Cross, O Holy Cross.
Thy spirits loyal, true and strong
Holy Cross, O Holy Cross.
Thy purple banner floats on high,
While songs of praise swell to the sky,
Thy honored name shall never die,
Holy Cross, O Holy Cross.

To our Erinne . . . a few things to remember as you graduate:

Cultivate gratitude, it is the lovliest garden
Breathe - deeply and often
Admire originality; it is beauty clothed in comfort
Van Gogh painted sunflowers, so can you
When it is right, eleven years is a moment
Remember, Home is with the sand and stones
Smile to the point of jubilance
Turn around every once in a while to see where you've been Wish upon a star
Always carry a little bubble gum money . . . just in case
Remember your green roots, so brilliant
The truth is that you can never have too many angels
Leap over the puddles . . . . or make a big splash
Protect your serenity
Chocolate ice cream makes everything better
Know that he is keeping his promise . . . . everyday
Take long walks and collect shells
Never forget having five candles on your birthday cake
Take a little, leave a little
If you can count your true friends on one hand, you are blessed
Pray that, with every day, the joys will outweigh the sorrows
Be a star
Fill your passport with lots of stamps
Write, write, write
Draw smiley faces on envelopes
Look for rainbows - in every shape and size
Fly Bird, Fly!

We love you . . . words only begin to express how much.

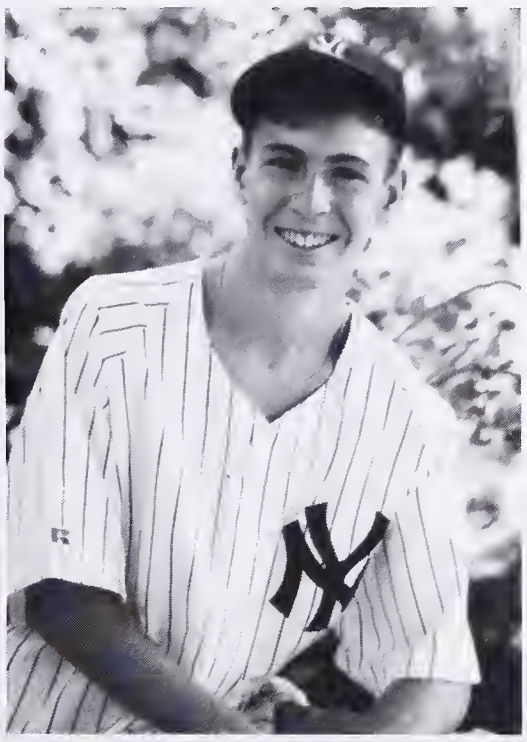
We hope the future brings health and happiness and all you wish to achieve. All graduates will experience some future obstacles. With your ambition, intelligence and common sense, you will be able to tackle those obstacles successfully.

For a 21 year old you have already accomplished so much and for that we are very proud. However, more importantly, you are a caring, compassionate, wonderful person. Those and other qualities make you that very special daughter everyone wishes for.

With lots of love,
Mom & Dad



You've come a long way, son . . . . Keep on going.
